

ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

*"I got to cover Angels baseball games, which is the team I grew up following, as well as surfing, skateboarding, minor league baseball, volleyball, and more. It was really a dream come true for me to see my name in the newspaper that I grew up reading..." ~ Michael Peterson, Rebele Intern 2015

"The highlight of the summer was getting to cover games and write sidebar columns for the Angels. It was an incredible experience to go to the Angels Stadium as a reporter rather than a spectator. While some people feel the game of baseball is very slow, I loved how quick I needed to be to cover it well... The most satisfying feeling of the summer was when Angels catcher Hank Conger gave me a sincere compliment on a feature I wrote about his defensive improvements."

The Register is accepting applications for Summer and Fall 2019 college internships.

Selected interns will have the opportunity to contribute to the Register's print and online platforms; as well as work for the Register's sister publications at the Southern California News Group covering Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties (www.socalnewsgroup.com).

We're looking for talented, motivated journalists in the areas of News and Sports reporting; and in Photography.

Applicants must be journalism/communications majors or recent graduates with a print focus and with experience working in journalism for a university newspaper or similar publication.

Applicants must be licensed drivers with access to an insured vehicle.

Those interested should email Todd Harmonson, senior editor, at tharmonson@scng.com with a resume, cover letter, letter of recommendation, latest college transcript and three work samples.

Deadlines:

SUMMER -- APRIL 3

FALL -- JUNE 5
