Detroit Free Press summer breaking news/trending news internship, Summer 2023

The Free Press is looking for a high-energy, self-starting intern to join the largest news organization in Michigan this summer for 12-week, full-time assignment on our breaking and trending news team. Interns will be responsible for researching, reporting and writing compelling journalism, taking on assignments and developing your own story ideas that inform and engage readers. Interns will be asked to provide thoughtful analysis of complex issues and trending news, connecting with readers through social media, while working with their editors and the web team to shape storytelling to meet audience needs and interests.

Please send a cover letter, resume and at least three writing samples to Jewel Gopwani Myers at jgopwani@freepress.com and James Hill at jghill@freepress.com.
